As a boy, serving as an acolyte, I used to love watching the seasons of the Church year progress from Advent through Pentecost and the “long green season” following Pentecost. I admit, I used to get bored during that “ordinary time,” it seemed so long. The colors of the seasons heightened my awareness of something happening, even if I didn’t fully understand what was happening. There was something very special about it all.

I eventually came to understand more about what was happening and what the colors represented. In the 1960s, purple was used for the seasons of Advent and Lent, representing the solemnity of the seasons and, especially in Lent, the penitential nature of the season. Christmas brought the white altar, pulpit, and ambo hangings, representing the purity, innocence, divine grace, and joy of Christmas. Epiphany’s color is green, representing life and growing. So, green is also used after Pentecost representing the growth of the Church as the apostles spread the gospel throughout the world. Purple has been used in Lent to mark the penitential nature of the season as the faithful prepare themselves for Holy Week and Easter. Holy Week, though definitely still a part of Lent, is marked by the color red because of the suffering and passion of Jesus during that week. In this case red represents the blood of Jesus for his passion and death on a cross. Black, denoting death, is used on Good Friday, the only day of the year it is used. Easter brings the joy of the resurrection and Jesus’ victory over sin and death. White, which symbolizes resurrection, purity, light, joy and feast is most appropriate for Easter, funerals, Trinity Sunday, and All Saints’ Day.

The day of Pentecost commemorates the Holy Spirit being given to the Church as we are told in the book of The Acts of the Apostles, "... there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them [the apostles]," (Acts 2:3). Red represents, not only blood, but the fire of the Holy Spirit, and is used at ordinations and other times to make this association.

In recent decades, blue has been growing in use in the Church during Advent, which begins on the fourth Sunday before Christmas Day. Blue is a color of hope and anticipation. During Advent we look forward to the birth of the Christ Child in a manger but also to the coming of Christ at the end of time in hopeful anticipation, something church nerds call the "eschaton." (Yes, I am a nerd.) It has grown in popularity because Advent is not Lent and using blue is a beautiful way to distinguish between the two seasons. Advent is a time to quietly contemplate one's life and one's relationship with Jesus. It is a solemn season, yes, but it does not have the more penitential aura of Lent. To help make a clearer distinction, many churches are using blue for Advent.

In recognition of this distinction between Lent and Advent, the Worship Committee at St. Peter's has decided to use blue this year during Advent. As was mentioned at our beloved "Coach's" burial service, donations made in his memory were to be used for the purpose of purchasing these blue altar hangings. Unfortunately, it may not be until the second or third Sunday of Advent that the blue hangings and chalice burse and veil will arrive. After ordering the hangings, we realized that we needed to make a few changes, which pushed the delivery date back a couple of weeks. However, they will be here and we will have them for years to come. The Worship Committee prays that everyone will be blessed with a renewed appreciation of the Advent season as we approach the blessed birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ.

WELCOME!

LAURA KALLESTAD

Let's, take a moment or two and welcome Laura Kallestad. As of July 5, 2022 Laura has taken over the duties as Parish Secretary and Day School Administrator for Vel Shreve who retired on July 1st.

Here's a little history about our new Parish Secretary and Day School Administrator.

Not a native of Norfolk, Laura was born overseas thanks to the U.S. Navy. Her family came back to the states when she was about 8 months (she even had her own passport). Her father was stationed at the Pentagon, where they lived in Annadale, VA. Her father was then transferred to Little Creek Amphibious Base where they lived in Va. Beach. Her father was transferred again to NOB-Port Services, and they moved to a house near the base. When she was 4 they moved to the only house she can remember and that's where they stayed after her father retired as XO of Norfolk Naval Base.

Laura attended Norfolk public schools, where her mother was a Speech Pathologist, until she finished the 5th grade. She was transferred to Norfolk Collegiate in the 6th grade from where she graduated in 1980. Laura went on to attend Longwood College (now Longwood University). She has worked in Human Resources as Assistant to the Director of Human Resources at a local shipyard (MHI) in Norfolk. She was later an Accounting and Order Processing Secretary for a major flower bulb distributor in Chesapeake until she returned home to care for her two children in 1998.

While looking for a place for her daughter, Anna, to attend pre-school, she discovered an ad for St. Peter's in the "Tidewater Parent" paper. A cradle Episcopalian (home church was Church of the Advent), it seemed like the right fit, (says Laura). She hadn't attended church for some time but felt both of her children should have a foundation in the Episcopal church. The three of them started attending St. Peter's in 1999. Anna her first, had already been baptized at Advent but Joseph was baptized at St. Peter's. Both were subsequently confirmed at St. Peter's. Anna tried choir and was a nursery helper, Joseph was an acolyte and Laura worked in the nursery and Sunday School for many years. Anna graduated from Kindergarten at St. Peter's in June of 2000.

Laura started working in the Day School when Joseph began the 4-year-old program in September of 2002. She was a teacher's aide and mid-year became a teacher in the 3-year-old program. Joseph graduated from Kindergarten at St. Peter's in June 2005.

In September of 2006, she went back to being a teacher's aide and realized that was where she wanted to stay. After many supervisors of Extended Care came and went (the last one being Nancy Comfort) Laura stepped in on July 1, 2014. She became the Extended Care Supervisor/Summer Camp Supervisor and Teacher's Aide and that is where she stayed until Vel retired.

Laura, we are so excited for your new Journey at St. Peter's and know you have big shoes to fill. But...we know you can do it! And thank you for saying yes to being our new Parish Secretary and Day School Administrator.

Blessings and Good Luck!!!

FORGIVE THEM

Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing."

Luke 23:34

"Jesus Forgives Those Who Hurt Him"

Scripture - Luke 23:33-43

Have you ever had a day where it felt like one bad thing after another kept happening? For example, maybe you were late for school and then you broke something and then at lunch you were supposed to have your favorite sandwich, but before you could take a bite, you spilled your milk all over it and made it squishy...and when you got home, your dog ate your shoe. Ever have a day like that? Where it felt like EVERYTHING was going wrong? And then, maybe what happens for you is that you start to get mad about it. And, maybe you get so mad that when someone asks you, "Hey, what's wrong?" you might yell at them, "Leave me alone!"

It's almost like, in those moments, that we try to share our bad day with others by making their day bad, too

I bring this up because in today's scripture story, we hear that Jesus is having an incredibly bad day, too.

He's been arrested and punished for something he didn't do, and while he's slowly dying from that punishment, EVERYONE is making fun of him. And when I say everyone, I mean the religious leaders are making fun of him, Roman soldiers are making fun of him, even one of the criminals (who is being punished just like Jesus is) is making fun of Jesus.

It is the worst of worst days for Jesus. But, amazingly, Jesus does not get mad. Instead, Jesus does an amazing thing and asks God to forgive the people. Later on, when a second criminal, who was also having a really bad day, asked Jesus to remember him, Jesus did not say, "Go away! Leave me alone!"

Instead Jesus said, "You will be with me."

Because Jesus was seeking God's help despite having a bad day, Jesus was able to then help makes that other man's day a little bit better.

Prayer: Dear God, please help us to ask for help even on our worst days so that we can receive and share your help. Thank you and Amen

Vestry Meeting Minutes

September 12, 2022

Opening: The St. Peter's Vestry met together in the Diffenbaugh Library on September 12, 2022. Attending the meeting were Fr. Jim, Kimberly Truxell, Susan Sigler, Debbie Whitehorne, Charlotte Corbett, Bruce Comfort, and Charlie Pfeifer, Treasurer.

Vestry Meeting Opening: The Vestry Meeting was opened with the beginning of the service of Evening Prayer.

August 2022 Minutes: The August 2022 Minutes were distributed to the vestry. Kimberly moved that the minutes be approved. Bruce seconded the motion. The minutes were approved.

Finance Report: Charlie reviewed the August Financial Report with the vestry.

The Cash Account Balances for August 2022 are as follows:

Operating Account:	$22,555.97
Money Market Account	$50,055.16
Composite Fund:	$65,767.11
Total Net Assets:	$135,827.51

The Financial committee has recommended that the August 2022 Financial Report be approved, and the Vestry agreed.

Senior Warden's Report:

Follow-up from the Diocese: Kimberly informed the vestry that a follow-up from the Diocese concerning Fr. Jim's position and the transition period has not yet been received.

Two Services: The return to two services on Sundays began on September 11th and was well received by the congregation with eight attending the 8AM service and forty attending the 10AM service. In addition, several members returned who had not recently been attending a Sunday service at St. Peter's.

Junior Warden:

Lawn Care: More yard work is being scheduled especially mulching and tree trimming.

Cleaning Service: Rugs have been cleaned in the office wing.

Filter Cleaning: No further action has been taken.

Day School AC: The down payment has been made. The work will take two days and cannot be done on a weekend.

City Storm Water: We are still having trouble communicating with the city on this subject.

Grease Trap: Bruce informed the vestry that he has purchased a professional grease drain cleaning product and will see if it is sufficient to keep our kitchen odor free.

Old Business:

Counters: It was decided that St. Peter's should resume having volunteer counters for the Sunday collections beginning with the new year. The congregation should be informed of this through the Sunday Bulletin, The Call etc. so that the schedule can be filled.

September Vestry Minutes cont.

Bathroom Stalls: Vel is looking into the work needed on the bathroom stalls.

Computer for Laura: Laura has received a new upgraded computer.

New Business:

Kitchen Rental: An organization outside of the church has requested to rent the kitchen and Parish Hall for a one-time youth event. After some discussion, it was determined that more information was needed concerning this event. However, Bruce moved that if that event were approved, a fee of $200 would be required and would include stipulations as to clean up etc. Kimberly seconded the motion, and the motion was passed. It was also suggested that a set of basic contracts for such events might be established for future rental requests from outside the church.

Kitchen Mangers: Bruce reminded the Vestry that an authorized Kitchen Manager is required to attend such a rental event, and therefore, we need to have more church members trained to qualify for this position.

Christian Ed: Linsey is resigning as the Sunday School Superintendent as of the end of October and a replacement will be needed

LEMs and Lectors: Susan reminded the vestry that with two services now, a new schedule will be needed for filling these positions on Sundays.

Communion: The Vestry decided not to return to using the common cup for Eucharist at this time.

Passing the Peace: The vestry decided to encourage a return to personal greetings, handshakes etc. during the Passing of the Peace.

Formation of Search Committee: The formation of a Search Committee was discussed. It was determined that the Search Committee with at least five church members including a variety of ages and interests should be established soon. Elise Balcom could serve as a consultant. A current Parish Profile needs to be done and for this, the committee could also draw from past profiles and surveys such as the recent Holy Cow Survey.

Other Business:

New Lights: Bruce informed the Vestry that he has installed new LED lights on the front of the church.

Payroll Direct Deposit: Charlie informed the Vestry that payroll is now being switched to a new system of direct deposit.

Signing Authority: Fr. Jim will soon be established with full signing authority for all church accounts.

Day School Financial Assistance: St. Peter's continues to investigate all possible financial assistance for the Day School.

Tax Exempt Status: St. Peter's has established a tax-exempt status with Amazon

Altar Guild storage: The Altar Guild is looking for a secure storage space that they can access within the church.

Christmas Party: Kimberly reminded Fr Jim and the vestry that it was not too early to decide where and when the Staff and Vestry Christmas party will be held.

There being no further business, Kimberly moved to adjourn. Bruce seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned and closed with "The Prayers" portion of The Evening Prayer service followed by The Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
